Remember freedom.

With NightForce managing your on-call burden, you're free to live real-world hours. More sleep. More family time. More leisure time. Once you're no longer on call at night, you can focus your attention on important daytime responsibilities. You'll be more productive, happier, more responsive to referring physicians, and better able to provide the highest level of patient care.

It's easy to get started

When you sign on with NightForce, we assign an Account Manager whose sole responsibility is to simplify your life at every stage of your relationship with us. Our credentialing team will shepherd the paperwork, and our technology team will help establish secure hardware and software connectivity with our system.

No set-up cost, no nightly minimums

A NightForce contract is simple: We operate on an annual basis with no set-up cost and no nightly minimums. We bill monthly based on the number of studies, so you can use us as much or as little as you want. Our on-call hours normally extend from 5pm to 7am Central Standard Time, 365 days per year, although we can negotiate customized coverage to meet your needs.
